Dear Anchor Family,

We have exciting news to share with you this week! Ms. Emma Digert has accepted the position to teach sixth grade at Anchor Lutheran School next fall. Ms. Digert is known by many of you, as she worked at Anchor for a number of years in our Early Childhood Program. She has been teaching at Inlet View Elementary this year, but is excited to come back to the Anchor Family. We can't wait to have her back with us.

It is with joy that we also announce that Mrs. Christie Platt will be moving into the Jr. High classroom next fall. Mrs. Platt has previous teaching experience in the upper grades and is excited to move up. Her theatre experience will add a new dimension Anchor's theatre program.

If you've been keeping track of the teachers and their placements, you'll notice that third grade is now open. We are continuing the interview process to fill that position. We hope to have our team in place by June. As I mentioned last week, if you know of any great teachers have them contact the office!

In Him,

Ms. Chandler & Mrs. Dean
